It's Time for Us to Think about 2018-2019 Staff Development

Bargaining Unit members have rights regarding staff development identified in Article IV. Hours and Assignments, Section D-E in the MUSD-MTA contract. Section D.6. refers to Staff Development Days.

- a. Staff development for each of these days will focus on instructional methods, including teaching strategies, classroom management and other training designed to improve pupil performance and academic content in the core curriculum.
- b. The Staff Inservice Committee will be encouraged to use staff development days within the contractual year. These days shall include, but not be limited to: (1) Planning and preparing the instructional program. (2) Keeping records. (3) Researching curriculum needs. (4) Conferring with administrators, support personnel and/or colleagues. (5) Meeting in Committees. (6) Any and all other activities that would help in improving the instructional program.

Section E. refers to the Staff Inservice Committee which must be consulted prior to all staff development at the site.

And, It's Time for Sites to Start Thinking about Assignments
